

Montana Child Support Seminar

Nicholas Bourdeau is offering a seminar on the Montana Child Support Guidelines which is designed for attorneys, paralegals, and legal secretaries. The seminar provides the basics for new preparers and moves quickly to more complex topics. The class emphasizes calculations performed for use in adversarial settings, but identifies areas that should be negotiated instead of litigated. The summary and analysis forms that Bourdeau uses for court presentations will be provided in Excel© format on CD. Questions, presentations of opposing calculations, and anything up to, but not including, physical debate will be encouraged.

This 4 hour seminar is being presented in Missoula, MT on Friday, May 15th, 2009. Start time is 8:30am.

Child Support Seminar and Family Law Mediation Workshop

This workshop is for individuals needing in-depth training specific to family law issues. Day One starts with Nicholas Bourdeau's workshop on Montana Child Support Guidelines. The class emphasizes the basics of guideline preparation, information gathering, and issue resolution within an alternative dispute resolution setting. The afternoon session addresses the valuation and division of marital estates. Day two of the seminar is led by Carson Taylor, JD. It focuses on family law, recent changes (including confidentiality), negotiating parenting plans and ethics. For those already trained in basic mediation techniques, this two day workshop fulfills the necessary 16 hours of Family Law required for the Family Designation with the Montana Mediation Association.

This 16 hour seminar is being presented in Bozeman, MT on Monday and Tuesday, May 11-12, 2009. Start time is 8:00am.

Continuing Legal Education credits are pending for both seminars.
